- Economic Hardship: The Great Depression intensified poverty, making access to education and entertainment like books a luxury.

This environment created a pressing need for innovative solutions to bring knowledge and connection to these communities.

The Birth of the Pack Horse Librarians Program

- Provide rural residents with access to books and educational materials.
- Promote literacy and lifelong learning.
- Support community cohesion and mental well-being during tough economic times.

The program enlisted local women, many of whom were volunteers or paid workers, to serve as the "pack horse librarians."
