Sample Response 1:

In designing a literacy lesson aimed at enhancing reading comprehension and critical thinking for middle school students, I would focus on engaging students with diverse texts and interactive activities. - Summative: A short written response where students analyze a specific theme or character, demonstrating comprehension and critical thinking skills.
- Self-Assessment: Students reflect on their learning process via exit tickets.

This lesson plan integrates explicit reading strategies, collaborative learning, and formative assessments to foster comprehension and critical thinking.

Sample Prompt 2: Addressing Diverse Learning Needs

Supporting English language learners (ELLs) in a mainstream classroom requires intentional modifications that promote language development while ensuring content mastery. My approach combines scaffolding techniques, visual aids, and collaborative activities.

Strategies for Modification:

- Visual Supports: Incorporate images, charts, graphic organizers, and videos related to lesson content to provide context and aid comprehension.
- Language Scaffolding: Use sentence frames and vocabulary lists tailored to the lesson's key concepts, helping ELLs participate actively.
- Simplified Language: Adjust complex instructions and provide summaries to make content accessible without diluting learning objectives.
- Peer Support: Pair ELLs with bilingual or proficient peers for collaborative learning, fostering peer modeling and language practice.
