The novel follows the narrator, John (also known as Jonah), a writer tasked with creating a book about the day-to-day lives of the children of the late Dr. Felix Hoenikker, one of the scientists who developed the atomic bomb. As John investigates Hoenikker's life, he uncovers a series of bizarre and unsettling discoveries that lead to the creation of a new, deadly substance called "Ice-Nine."

The story unfolds in the fictional Caribbean island of San Lorenzo, a country rife with political instability, poverty, and eccentric characters. The island becomes a focal point for the novel's exploration of humanity's capacity for destruction and the absurdity of human endeavors.

Ice-Nine, the novel's central allegory, symbolizes the destructive potential of scientific discovery when divorced from ethical considerations. Its capacity to freeze water instantly and irreversibly mirrors real-world fears about nuclear proliferation and environmental catastrophe.

Other symbols include:

- The "Bokononism" religion, which satirizes the absurdities of organized faith
- The character of Felix Hoenikker, representing scientific detachment and moral indifference
- The island of San Lorenzo, a microcosm of political chaos and humanity's vulnerability
